How to Answer

Your answer does not have to be perfect. Just answer in complete thoughts and use details from the chapter.

How to structure your answer

A strong answer usually has a few parts. Try these steps:

- 1. Answer the question. Start with one sentence that answers the question directly.
- 2. Give an example. Add a detail or moment from the chapter that shows what you mean.
- 3. Explain why. Tell why it mattered, or how it made you think or feel.
- 4. Wrap it up. Finish with a closing thought, a question, or a prediction.

In chapter 10, Kreacher tells the story of Regulus Black. How does learning this story change the way Harry sees Kreacher and the Black family?

Example answer: I think Harry starts to see Kreacher as someone who has been hurt and lonely, not just as a mean house-elf. Regulus also seems braver than Harry expected because he tried to fight Voldemort in his own way. This changes the Black family for me because it shows that not everyone in the family was the same. Some of them made bad choices, but Regulus tried to do what was right at the end.

Chapter 36

In chapter 36, how does Harry defeat Voldemort, and what message does the ending give about love, courage, and power?

In chapter 21, The Tale of the Three Brothers teaches a lesson through a story. What lesson do you think the tale teaches about power, fear, or wisdom?

Example answer: I think the tale teaches that wanting too much power can be dangerous. The first brother wants the strongest wand, but it does not keep him safe. The second brother cannot accept death, and that makes him unhappy. The third brother is the wisest because he is humble and patient.

In chapter 33, after seeing Snape's memories, how does Harry's opinion of Snape change, and what surprised you most?

Example answer: Harry's opinion of Snape changes because he learns that Snape was helping Dumbledore and protecting Harry for years. I think Harry realizes that Snape was much more complicated than just a cruel teacher. What surprised me most was that Snape loved Lily Potter and made many hard choices because of that love. I still think Snape made mistakes, but now I understand him better.
