How to Answer

Your answer does not have to be perfect. Just answer in complete thoughts and use details from the chapter.

How to structure your answer

A strong answer usually has a few parts. Try these steps:

- 1. Answer the question. Start with one sentence that answers the question directly.
- 2. Give an example. Add a detail or moment from the chapter that shows what you mean.
- 3. Explain why. Tell why it mattered, or how it made you think or feel.
- 4. Wrap it up. Finish with a closing thought, a question, or a prediction.

What is the most important event in this chapter, and why does it matter to the story?

Example answer: I think the most important event is when the main character finally faces the problem instead of trying to avoid it. That matters because it changes the direction of the story and makes the conflict feel more serious. It also helps me understand what the character cares about most. After this chapter, I expect the character will have to make even harder choices.

How is a character in this chapter different from how they seemed earlier in the book?

Example answer: Earlier in the book, the character seemed unsure and did not want to speak up. In this chapter, the character seems braver because they take action even though things are difficult. This change shows growth. It makes me think the character is starting to understand their own strength.

If you could give this chapter a new title, what would it be and why?

Example answer: I would title this chapter A Hard Choice because the chapter focuses on a decision that is not simple. The character has to think about what might happen next and how other people could be affected. That title fits because the choice creates tension. It also makes the chapter feel important to the rest of the story.
