How to Answer

Your answer does not have to be perfect. Just answer in complete thoughts and use details from the chapter.

How to structure your answer

A strong answer usually has a few parts. Try these steps:

1. Answer the question. Start with one sentence that answers the question directly.
2. Give an example. Add a detail or moment from the chapter that shows what you mean.
3. Explain why. Tell why it mattered, or how it made you think or feel.
4. Wrap it up. Finish with a closing thought, a question, or a prediction.

What do you predict might happen next? Explain which clues from this chapter helped you make that prediction.

Example answer: I predict that the main character will have to face a harder problem soon. In this chapter, there were several hints that things were not fully solved yet. One clue was that a character seemed worried even after the big event was over. That makes me think the next chapter will bring a new challenge.

Do you agree with a decision a character makes in this chapter? Why or why not?

Example answer: I partly agree with the character's decision because they were trying to do what seemed right at the time. However, I think they should have asked for help before acting. Their choice made the situation more complicated. This shows that even brave choices can have consequences.

If you gave this chapter a new title, what would it be, and why would that title fit?

Example answer: I would title this chapter "A Difficult Choice." That title fits because the chapter focuses on a moment when a character has to decide what to do. The decision is not easy, and it affects other characters too. A title like that would make readers curious about what choice will be made.
