How to Answer

Your answer does not have to be perfect. Just answer in complete thoughts and use details from the chapter.

How to structure your answer

A strong answer usually has a few parts. Try these steps:

1. Answer the question. Start with one sentence that answers the question directly.
2. Give an example. Add a detail or moment from the chapter that shows what you mean.
3. Explain why. Tell why it mattered, or how it made you think or feel.
4. Wrap it up. Finish with a closing thought, a question, or a prediction.

What have you learned so far about repatriation, or returning ancestors and sacred items?

Example answer: I learned that repatriation is not just about moving things from one place to another. It is about respect, family, and doing what is right for the people who came before. Perry helps me see that ancestors and sacred items should not be treated like prizes or decorations. They belong with their community.

How does Perry's voice as the narrator help you understand her personality?

Example answer: Perry's voice helps me understand that she is bold and honest. She notices when something feels wrong, and she does not like pretending everything is fine. Sometimes she sounds frustrated, but that shows she cares deeply. Her thoughts make her feel like a real person, not a perfect hero.

If you were in Perry's place, what would be hard for you to decide?

Example answer: If I were in Perry's place, it would be hard to decide when to listen to adults and when to speak up. I would want to be respectful, but I would also want to protect my community. It would be scary to know that my choice might get me in trouble. I think I would need help from people I trust.
